

UDAYBHANSINHJI REGIONAL INSTITUTE OF COOPERATIVE MANAGEMENT, GANDHINAGAR, GUJARAT

(An Institution of National Council for Cooperative Training, New Delhi, Autonomous Society promoted by Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India, New Delhi)

Introduction

Udaybhansinhji Regional Institute of Cooperative Management (URICM), established in 1956 is administered by the National Council for Cooperative Training (NCCT) and funded by the Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India. URICM offers a PGDM (ABM) program and long- and short-term training courses for government and cooperative executives, including a Higher Diploma in Cooperative Management and various short courses in areas like Banking, Leadership, and Women Empowerment.

URICM is also accredited by the Centre for Professional Excellence in Cooperative (C-PEC), enhancing its credibility in cooperative practices. Additionally, our affiliation with the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) underscores our commitment to quality technical education, validating our academic offerings and opening diverse career opportunities for our graduates. Therefore, URICM is also aligning its practices with the principles of the New Education Policy.

The New Education Policy (NEP) 2020 emphasized integrating vocational education, general education and strengthening the industry-academia collaboration. Udaybhansinhji Regional Institute of Cooperative Management, Gandhinagar offers professional courses, management courses and other courses to encourage the participants to visit various types of cooperative and acquire knowledge about cooperatives and its management.

Objectives

1. To fill the faculty gap in the training units of URICM.
2. To enhance the quality of courses and enable the training units of URICM to work with experts in the field of cooperatives and allied sectors.
3. To pool experts in various functional areas of cooperatives and allied sectors.
4. To encourage experts in the field of cooperatives and other areas of management to associate with the training units of URICM in teaching, training, research, and consultancy.

Institute is seeking subject matter experts in the fields of Cooperation/Cooperatives, Management, Commerce, Finance, Human Resources, Marketing, Sales, Entrepreneurship and other related disciplines.

Period of Empanelment of Academic Resource Pool

Once empanelled as an Academic Resource Pool (ARP) member in URICM, the selection is valid for three years, subject to performance reviews every six months based on participant feedback. Further empanelment is allowed up to the age of 72, with a maximum age limit of 75 years for ARP members.

Role and Responsibilities of ARP

Academic Resource Experts are expected to deliver lectures according to the policies of URICM, involve in course development and curriculum design for training programs and conduct workshops, seminars and special lectures jointly with regular faculty. They should also collaborate with regular faculty to carry out research projects and consultancy services and actively participate in departmental committees, student networks and industry collaborations.
